Jenna represents her clients in all aspects of domestic relations matters, such as divorce, dissolution, legal separation, the establishment and modification of child custody and child support, spousal support, division of property, and all post-decree matters, and alternative dispute resolution.

Her practice includes the following specific areas:

- Dividing complex marital estates, including investment properties, business interests, unusual investments, complicated retirement plans, and separate property issues;
- Evaluating business and partnership interests for division in divorce;
- Researching and analyzing records to identify misappropriated or hidden marital assets;
- Drafting, interpreting, and evaluating the enforceability of prenuptial agreements;
- Crafting tailored temporary and permanent spousal and child support plans;
- Allocating parental rights and responsibilities;
- Issues concerning parental relocation;
- Custody matters involving psychological expert testimony;
- Domestic violence matters; and
- Handling post-decree issues of enforcement and non-disclosed or omitted assets.

Jenna is actively engaged in the community. She is a mentor with Jewish Big Brothers Big Sisters and on the board of directors of City Fresh, a community supported agriculture organization that prioritizes food justice. Jenna also enjoys reading and spending time with her fiancé and their two dogs.

“Between stimulus and response there is a space.
In that space is our power to choose our response.
In our response lies our growth and our freedom.”

– Viktor Frankl
