Kyleigh Weinfurters' practice is focused on successfully navigating clients through all areas of family law matters, including divorce, dissolution, child custody, complex marital estates, spousal and child support. Kyleigh has been listed as a Best Lawyer since 2018.

Kyleigh's practice includes the following areas:

- Dividing complex marital estates, including investment properties, business interests, unusual investments, mineral rights, complicated retirement plans, and separate property issues;
- Evaluating business and partnership interests for division in divorce;
- Researching and analyzing records to identify misappropriated or hidden marital assets;
- Drafting, interpreting, and evaluating the enforceability of prenuptial agreements;
- Crafting tailored temporary and permanent spousal and child support plans;
- Allocating parental rights and responsibilities;
- Issues concerning parental relocation;
- Custody matters involving psychological expert testimony;
- Domestic violence matters; and
- Handling post-decree issues of enforcement and non-disclosed or omitted assets.

Kyleigh graduated from Case Western Reserve University School of Law and worked as a Law Clerk for the Family Law Group at Zashin & Rich while in law school. After practicing family law for four years at another top law firm, Kyleigh rejoined Zashin & Rich in 2018.

Outside of the office, Kyleigh spends her time cooking, reading and watching sports. She is an avid fan of the New York Giants and Cleveland Indians. She and her Husband reside on the East side with their three dogs.

“Worrying does not empty tomorrow of its troubles, it empties today of its strength.”
