Lisa Kainec is a legal and human resources professional with 20+ years of experience in employment law across multiple industries including retail, healthcare, municipal, professional services, construction and manufacturing. Lisa has worked in-house as a human resources executive and senior employment counsel at one of America's largest private companies. She also has represented employers as a certified specialist in labor and employment law. Lisa joined Zashin & Rich in 2015 to apply her unique blend of experience to the strategic needs of the firm's clients. Lisa devotes her practice to providing practical strategies for proactive workforce management as well as vigorous defense of employee claims and litigation.

Lisa has practiced widely in state and federal courts, handling numerous public and private sector claims including wrongful discharge, discrimination, workplace harassment, retaliation, and unfair labor practices. She has also handled numerous labor arbitrations and has extensive experience in courts and administrative agencies throughout Ohio and the country, including the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Ohio Civil Rights Commission, and the Ohio State Employment Relations Board.

In 2010, Lisa was inducted as a Fellow into The Litigation Counsel of America, an invitation only, peer-selected, diverse honorary society of 3,500 of the best trial lawyers representing less than one-half of one percent of American lawyers, vigorously vetted for skills, expertise, and service. Lisa also was a founding Master of the Bench in the Cleveland Employment Inns of Court, serving as Co-Chair of the Program Committee from 2008 to 2010.

Lisa is certified both as a Senior Professional in Human Resources® and a SHRM Senior Certified Professional®. Lisa has spoken extensively throughout Ohio to public and private groups on a variety of employment topics including workplace harassment, the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act as Amended, and handling complex discipline and terminations.

“Success is never final. Failure is never fatal. It is courage that counts.”

– Winston Churchill
