Jessi Ziska's practice encompasses all areas of employment and labor law. Jessi earned her law degree from the University of Akron School of Law. Along with her J.D., she earned certificates in both Litigation and Alternative Dispute Resolution and Health Law. As a law student, she took advantage of several campus leadership opportunities. Jessi was a member of the Moot Court Honor Society and Trial Team. As a member of the Moot Court Honor Society, Jessi competed in the 2016 American Bar Association National Appellate Advocacy Competition in Boston, Massachusetts. Jessi was later elected to serve as the President of the Moot Court Honor Society. After her performance in Akron Law's Summer Trial Academy, Jessi was selected to join Akron Law's nationally known Trial Team, which gave her the opportunity to compete in the 2016 Ohio Attorney General's Public Service Mock Trial Competition in Columbus.

As part of the Health Law program at Akron Law, Jessi completed an externship in the health law practice group of a well-established, Northeast Ohio firm. During her externship, she reviewed and revised employment agreements between physicians and hospitals, formed various corporate and non-profit entities, and ensured corporate compliance with federal and state laws.

In her free time, Jessi enjoys rock climbing, exercising, and spending time with her family.

"I know of no more encouraging fact than the unquestionable ability of man to elevate his life by conscious endeavor"

– Henry David Thoreau
